Youth With A Mission San Francisco Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of Youth With A Mission San Francisco of City, ST.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

Youth With A Mission San Francisco joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to engaging their city with a loving God,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 1995, Youth With A Mission San Francisco’s (www.ywamsanfrancisco.org) vision is that each person in San Francisco and the Bay Area would know the life-changing love and power of Jesus Christ and that the city would have an influential voice of redemption to the world.

To learn more about Youth With A Mission San Francisco and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch®, ECFA’s program that matches God’s servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA’s newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
